This letter shall serve as written confirmation that Adams Fashion Headwear's factories do not utilize any chemicals in the manufacture of our headwear styles; which are currently listed as banned under California's Proposition 65. We are committed to provide safe, high quality products for our customers. We will continue to ensure that Adams Fashion Headwear remains in full compliance with Proposition 65 by prohibiting our vendors from ever utilizing any chemical currently listed as banned. We have worked with our vendors and our supply chain partners to ensure the purchase of raw materials that will meet Prop 65 standards and our vendors have implemented a Third-Party testing program to regulate compliance with these requirements.

Sincerely,

Mark DeLucca
Executive Vice President
